

I strongly oppose RM-10869. CW is a great option for many operators. However, it should be just that..an option, not a requirement. I agree with ARRL's proposal to drop the CW licensing requirement. It's just not needed in this day and age. Time to move forward and stop punishing great operators that choose not to use CW.